

Submit a Pitt Concern Connection (PCC) Report

Together, we are building a culture where everyone feels comfortable raising concerns and asking questions. By asking questions and sharing concerns, you help to create a stronger, safer University community. The Pitt Concern Connection is not an emergency service.

Access the PCC

- <https://www.compliance.pitt.edu/make-report>
- Click "Make a Report"
- TIP: Pitt Concern Connection FAQs are also located here!

What do you want to do?

- Asking a question? Click "Ask a Question"
- Reporting an incident or concern? Click "Get Started"

Tell us what happened

- Explain your question or issue by answering all required fields
- TIP: When submitting an incident, the more detail, the better!
- TIP: When submitting an incident, a drop down list will appear under involved parties so you can select the right person
- TIP: University members listed as involved parties will not be able to see your report.

Tell us about yourself...

- ...if you want to! The PCC has 3 levels of anonymity: none, partial, and complete
- Create a password to check on your submission at any time
- TIP: Enter your email address to get notified of when changes are made

Submit your report

- Ensure that the details are correct to the best of your knowledge
- Submit your report to the Pitt Concern Connection
- TIP: Response times can vary. Contact compliance@pitt.edu if there has been no progress on your report within 2 weeks.
